IN THE

Court of Appeal of the State of California

IN AND FOR THE

Fifth Appellate District

F048595 Martinez v. John A. Barker & Associates et al.

The judgment is reversed. On remand, the superior court is directed to vacate its June 28, 2005, order and enter a new order stating that the demurrer is sustained without leave to amend only as to the claim that respondents' legal malpractice in the criminal proceeding caused appellant's criminal conviction. How the new order treats the demurrer as it may or may not relate to the other causes of action possibly stated in appellant's pleadings is a matter we commit to the discretion of the superior court. Appellant shall recover his costs on appeal.
